

What role for European Development Aid in today's Migration crisis?

Participatory debate

Lyon, Saturday 12th of March 2016, 2pm to 6pm

Amphithéâtre Maldiney

UCLY, Université Catholique de Lyon
(10 place des archives, 69002 Lyon)

AGENDA

14h00 – Introduction of event and speakers

14h15 – Questions to speakers and opening of the public discussion

15h15 – Working groups with the public (workshops led by IREX Europe, Esprits Critiques and the MDEE)

Working group 1: EU responsibility vis-à-vis its commitments towards development

Working group 2: How to assess development efficiency? Indicators and objectivity

Working group 3 (in English): Migration and development: causes and links?

16h45 – Final session: presentation of the results of each working group and discussion/follow-up

17h15 – Refreshments

About IREX Europe

IREX Europe is a not-for-profit organisation based in Lyon, France, implementing innovative programmes to improve quality of education, strengthen independent media, support the development of strong and plural civil society and to reduce conflicts.

IREX Europe approach involve strong partnerships with local Civil society organisations, with the objective to strengthen their capacities, to build sustainable institution and allow change.

About Esprits Critiques

Esprits Critiques is an international organisation of popular education which promotes freedom of expression. The organisation is managed by young people for young people in all their diversity.

The association explores media literacy educational tools, and supports young people in developing self-confidence and more autonomy. The organisation proposes media workshops, debates, intercultural meetings and support to citizen media.

Partners :

Institut des Droits de l'Homme - Lyon
Institute of Human Rights - Lyon

